

"Hello everyone! We will be postponing the "Shiny Things" tour until October 2022. I know it's a long time. While we don't know what will happen in the future, I want to be as sure as I can that the gang and I are able to prepare for, promote and play this tour in the best and safest way we can. I can barely remember what it's like to be in a room with hundreds of people anymore (I can't even remember the last time I was in a room with 5 people), and my vision for these shows is for us all to be together, rocking out and feeling things. Moving the tour to next year is the best option we have for making that happen. Because booking tours is a long and complicated process we had to make the decision some weeks ago, rather than waiting to see what might happen later this year. So I hope you understand, but safety first, magic second. xxK."
